BM7622 Amber Screen Composite Input Monitor

Accepts Composite Video Input Signal • allowing it to be used with almost any computer.

LA Amber Phosphor Tube • provides an easy-on-the-eyes image, less eye strain.

900 Dots of Resolution (Horizontal) • the number of picture elements (pixels) the monitor will display on one horizontal line.

350 Lines of Resolution (Vertical) • when fed with an interlaced video signal, the monitor will display 350 separate horizontal lines of picture information.

20MHz Amplifier Bandwidth • for sharper image definition.

80 x 25 Character Field • this monitor will accurately display 25 lines of 80 characters each, or 2000 characters total.

Dark Glass CRT • the tube glass incorporates a special dark background material to improve image contrast and reduce operator eye strain.

Anti-Glare CRT Face • treated with a special glare-reducing process to help eliminate eye fatigue caused by reflections from the monitor face.

Line Level Audio Input • this monitor is equipped with an audio amplifier to reproduce sound and will accept standard line level audio signals.

Vertical and Horizontal Centering Controls • to provide for optimum performance with a number of products, the image can be positioned on the screen with the use of these two back panel-located controls.

Built-in Tilt Stand • allows the user to adjust the viewing angle to suit personal preference.

Interface Cables Included • included with this monitor are appropriate cables to provide a one-step solution for most Atari and Commodore computers.

One Year Limited Warranty • this monitor is backed by a one-year limited warranty and a nationwide Magnavox service organization.
